

Forbes Diamonds 2023

CASP System company is active on the market for over 20 years, and is one of the leading suppliers of industrial automation and complete non-destructive testing solutions for industrial sector.

In 2023 the company has been awarded the Forbes Diamond for the fifth time.

Forbes Diamonds are a prestigious distinction, awarded to companies that have the fastest growth rate in Poland. Companies that are nominated are then checked and the choice is made on the basis of financial analysis for the last 3 years.

CASP System`s success is the effect of hard work of the entire team, as well as effective business strategy. The company makes sure that its products and services are of highest quality, which in turn gains loyalty of the customers and further growth of the company. Forbes Diamond is a confirmation that CASP System is enjoying successes on the market and has the capability for further expansion.

Forbes Diamond award for us is also a strong motivation for further hard work on improving and growing. Success of the company is not only profitable for the company itself, but for the whole industrial sector in Poland as a whole.
